

Professional Summary

Hi, my name is Jonathan Dinetz. I am a graphic design student at Rhode Island School of Design, currently taking a year off due to COVID-19. Beyond graphic design, I have a diverse skill set that ranges from construction to customer service to CPR and I am always ready to pick up something new.

Education

Rhode Island School of Design
BFA in Graphic Design, Class of 2023
(2019-present)

Brown University
Classes in computer science and philosophy
(2019-present)

UCLA
Majored in Design Media Arts, with classes in Media History, Architectural History, and Anthropology
(2018-2019)

Experience

- 2018 Lifeguard at Piedmont Community Pool
Trained and certified lifeguard with CPR, water extraction skills etc. Daily responsibilities included preparing safety equipment for use, facility maintenance, and chemical checks.
- 2018 Office staff at Piedmont Community Pool
Worked at front desk of local community pool. Daily responsibilities included greeting guests, working the register, answering customer calls, pool maintenance, and emergency response.
- 2019 The Daily Bruin
Design intern at UCLA campus newspaper. Worked collaboratively on developing layouts (i.e. what image we should use for the cover, text etc.) for the next day's paper often under deadline pressure.